hello
sky...

I am really enjoying your vibe today, sky the torrential rain over the past few days was a bit over-the-top but today you've gone for something more subtle it is bold, threatening, and it makes everyone uneasy

"do I take an umbrella? which coat shall I wear?"
they say

brilliant

your theme is very consistent you've really explored all the nuances of grey this is how I'd rate your performance today an uncertain amount

a grey area
